

INTELLIGENCE RESEARCH & DEVELOPMENT COUNCIL

29 June 1982

Richard D. DeLauer
Chairman

Attached for your information please find a copy of a listing of additional Intelligence Community funding requirements for research projects which we have sent over to OSTP at Vic Reis' request. It seems that Keyworth is letting Meese know what are the Executive Departments research requirements, above and beyond, what we now have charted.

The request was for basic research requirements, and we in the Intelligence Community it turns out aren't doing much basic research. We are more concerned with applications. Therefore, this initial list really didn't answer the mail. However, in a later talk with Vic, he tells me that later this summer they may be pushing for an expansion of the research definition. However, nothing firm on this yet.

Dear Vic:

Attached as you requested please find an informal listing of research programs, with estimated new budget authority, which could provide for future enhancements in the many activities of the National Foreign Intelligence Program. These estimates are of course initial and are subject to a more detailed review and refinement.

We will be happy to further discuss our proposals, if you wish.

Sincerely,

JS
